			Chapel Hill. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Recommendation letters (2) • Essays (2) • Admissions • Responses • The Robertson Scholars Leadership Program is one of the most generous and visionary merit scholarship programs in American higher education. This program transforms students through their immersion in the intellectual and social life of two dynamic universities and their exposure to new and challenging environments. • Robertson Scholars are expected to participate in the various elements of the program, including but not limited to the first-year and junior retreats, the cross-campus course requirement and semester switch, and the first two summer enrichment programs. Students are chosen to participate in this program based on their demonstrated ability to make the most of opportunities that are presented to them and to create possibilities where none may have previously existed. As scholars, they are expected to continue making the most of the options provided by the program and by the two universities with which they are affiliated. • All scholars are required to maintain a normal course load each semester (four semester courses or their equivalent at Duke; a minimum of 12 and normally 15 hours at UNC-Chapel Hill). Scholars are expected to complete all graduation requirements. Continuation in the program depends on the maintenance of a 2.8 grade point average at the end of the freshmen year, and a 3.0 average each succeeding year. A student who fails to achieve the required average will be put "on review" and each year thereafter the student must obtain a 3.0 average in order to maintain the Robertson Scholarship. • For more information go to: https://www.unigo.com/scholarships/high-school-students/scholarships-for-high-school-seniors/robertson-scholars-leadership-program and/or see your School Counselor/College & Career Specialist
